thewinepact It must be spring!!!! 🌸 🐇yes!! that's me drinking a @riasbaixaswines white blend a delicious blend of Albariño and Laurieno varietals!!! 👌
This week on #winedowntodinner I'm changing it up.... (okay, I'm usually a red wine drinker) pairing this white blend with a garlic shrimp pizza! Yum!!! Because homemade pizza is always a good idea and not to mention.... as a mom with a 2 year old and 4 year old it gives us a lil something to do before dinner!!! #momlife hack!
P.S. what you don't see on my chalkboard behind me is my menu for the week!! Check it out in stories!!!!

thespanishwineguy 30 Days of Spanish Wine: DO Rías Baixas [2018 Granbazán Etiqueta Ámbar]

Let's head to the west coast! DO Rías Baixas is Spain's westernmost wine region and located in the autonomous region of Galicia.

The Granbazán Etiqueta Ámbar is made from 100% organically farmed Albariño in the Val do Salnés (Salnés Valley) sub-zone and spend five months in stainless steel tanks.

It is incredibly aromatic with great acidity and notes of stone and tropical fruit with an extended mineral and saline finish. This wine is exploringthewineglass So excited to be participating I a virtual tasting during social isolation hosted by @gregoryandvine on Wednesday. . Located in north-western Spain in the province of Galicia resides one of my favorite wine locations, Rías Baixas.

Located in a 17th Century building in the O'Rosal district, Santiago Ruiz' fruit sees a large influence from the Atlantic Ocean and Miño River. Producing wine since the 19th century, the Ruiz family were among the first to produce and label wines in Galicia. The wine label is unique with a hand drawn map. The map was drawn by Isabel, Santiago's daughter, themodernpour This picture was taken exactly one month ago today when I was in NYC 🏙🍷🗽🚕. Life has changed so much in the past 30 days. Looking for the silver lining in this new social distancing world. I'm an extroverted person and this is a weird/uncomfortable time for me. I keep trying to brainstorm ideas on how to be more useful right now. 🤔 All I can think of is pouring everyone a glass of wine (from afar). 🤷🏻‍♀️🍷💕 #thistooshallpass #TodoVaASalirBien #coronavirus #quarantine #glassofwine #youcansipwithus #brooklyn #stoops #nyc #themodernpour
