P: The Lord be with you.
C: And also with you.
P: Let us pray
C: Blessed are you, Oh Lord, our God! Guide our journey through this Holy Week as we walk together through the drama and mystery of this holy time. May the presence of Jesus touch our spirit, and transform our very lives, In Jesus name we pray. Amen.

The Processional Gospel / El Evangelio Procesional Mark 11:1-11

¹When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, [Jesus] sent two of his disciples ²and said to them, "Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. ³If anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately.' " ⁴They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, ⁵some of the bystanders said to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?" ⁶They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. ⁷Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. ⁸Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. ⁹Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting,

"Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!
¹⁰Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David!
Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

¹¹Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

L: The Lord be with you.
C: And also with you.
L: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
C: It is right to give God thanks and praise.
L: We praise and thank you, O Lord, for the great acts of love we celebrate this week, all of which proclaim Jesus as Lord. On this day he entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph, and was welcomed with shouts of joy as the Son of David and the King of kings by those who threw their garments and palm branches in his path.

Members of the congregation lift their palms for the blessing.

L: We ask that you bless these palms and those who bear them. We pray that we, together with all the saints, might always proclaim Jesus as our Lord and King with our own lives, following his example of faithfulness, compassion and loving service to our neighbors. This we ask in the name of the one we honor and praise, Jesus Christ, our Lord.
C: Amen.
L: We go forth in peace.
C: In the name of the Lord.
L: Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord!
C: Hosanna, hosanna. Hosanna, hosanna!

Closing Prayer and Blessing

- P: Family of faith, there will be days when we withhold our praise.
There will be days when we dare not follow.
There will be days when we ignore God’s call,
when we choose comfort over courage, and ourselves over others.
But even on those days, even on our worst days, we belong to God.
Hear and believe the good news of the gospel:
- C: Nothing can separate us from God’s love. We are loved, forgiven, and sent out to serve. Hosanna! Amen.
- P: May our Lord, whose arms were spread on the cross to embrace the whole world, help us this week to take up the cross and follow him.
- C: Amen
