

Welcome to Worship

November 20, 2022

Welcome to worship!

Jeremiah's promise of the execution of "justice and righteousness in the land" finds ironic fulfillment in the execution of Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews. It appears utterly contradictory that a king should be crucified with a criminal. This victory appears for all the world as humiliating defeat. Yet through the gate of death Jesus opens the door to paradise

Holy Communion

We will celebrate communion this morning. If you are joining us online, please have bread and wine (or juice) ready.

P: God of mercy and forgiveness,

C: we confess that sin still has a hold on us. We have harmed your good creation. We have failed to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with you. Turn us in a new direction. Show us the path that leads to life. Be our refuge and strength on the journey, through Jesus Christ, our redeemer and friend.

Amen.

P: Beloved of God: your sins are forgiven + and you are made whole. God points the way to new life in Christ, who meets us on the road. Journey now in God's abiding love through the power of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

R: The word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 46

R: 1God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

C: 2Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved, and though the mountains shake in the depths of the sea;

R: 3though its waters rage and foam, and though the mountains tremble with its tumult.

C: 4There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy habitation of the Most High.

R: 5God is in the midst of the city; it shall not be shaken; God shall help it at the break of day.

C: 6The nations rage, and the kingdoms shake; God speaks, and the earth melts away.

R: 7The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

C: 8Come now, regard the works of the Lord, what desolations God has brought upon the earth;

R: 9behold the one who makes war to cease in all the world; who breaks the bow, and shatters the spear, and burns the shields with fire.

C: 10Be still, then, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations; I will be exalted in the earth."

R: 11The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our stronghold.
