

How does a weary world
rejoice? An Advent Service to Luke's Gospel

Welcome to Worship

December 3, 2023

Today's reading

*We find joy in connection.
When we adopted a new mission statement (see bottom of page), we discerned that we value the connections that we have through this community. In today's gospel we hear the story of two women who are strengthened by their connection to one another.
Joy is found in connection.*

† Health concerns:
Jeanette (sister of Pastor Nancy's friend) surgery for a brain tumor; Helen Jackson; Tami Cobb (Gail Tenbus's daughter); Nancy and Debbie (Robin Freeman's friends); Lewis
Johnson Montana State Trooper (Robin T's relative); Miller family, and Jean (Caplinger friends); and those awaiting surgery.

† For those struggling with life (in whatever way), especially those who are hungry and unhoused. We pray for dignity and care for all who struggle.

† We continue to pray for all those in Israel and Gaza who are suffering from the war. We also pray for the people
everywhere who have no place to go to escape the violence that envelops their homes. We continue to pray for peace in our world and care for all those who are suffering from natural disasters.

Welcome & Invocation

Confession and Forgiveness

- L: Family of faith, one of the ways we find joy in a weary world is through connection. The prayer of confession is a place of connection with God. In the prayer of confession we get to come before God with our full, messy, honest selves. And in the midst of that mess, God tells us that we are loved, claimed, and forgiven.
There is no greater joy than that. So join me in the prayer of confession, not because you have to, but because you can. Let us connect with our merciful God. God of laughter, God of open front doors and family reunions, we confess that we often doubt good news.
- C: We move through this world waiting for the other shoe to drop, waiting for life to fall apart, waiting for our humanity to get the best of us.
- L: Instead of leaning into joy, we lean into scarcity.
- C: We lean into fear. We lean into isolation.
- L: Forgive us for forgetting that joy is amplified when shared.
- C: Heal the wounds we have from past hurts, and teach us how to throw open our doors like Elizabeth. Show us how to find joy in connection. Amen.
- L: Faith family, I imagine that when we come before God with the truth of our lives, God meets us like Elizabeth meets Mary in our scripture today. The door is thrown open. There is laughter. There is joy. There is embracing—and it is holy. So trust this; believe this: You are claimed. You are loved. You are forgiven. And you are sent to serve. Find joy in that. Amen!

Gathering Song

I Can Celebrate You, vs 1-2

Advent Candle Lighting

- R: How does a weary world practice peace?
- C: By listening before we speak and saying sorry when we need to.
- R: By advocating for justice and caring for our neighbor. By practicing Sabbath and forgiving seventy times seven.
- C: By choosing grace over hate and opening the door for each other.
- R: There are a million ways to practice peace. So today we light the candle of peace as a reminder and a charge.
- C: With God's help, may we bring peace into a weary world. Amen.

Gathering Song:

Prayer for Illumination

- L: Holy God, we know that you are near. We know that you are standing at the door, you are running down the driveway, you are inviting us in—into your Word, into relationship, and deeper into joy. So as we approach your Word, O God, we pray: do not let us pass you by. Do not allow distraction or doubt to get the best of us. Do not let us walk down this road without you. Instead, give us the wisdom to turn and run your way. Give us the wisdom to hear your wisdom, to let it sink into our bones and change us. With hope and gratitude we pray, amen.
- C: Amen

Gospel Acclamation

"Alleluia," Pompey

Gospel: Luke 1:24-45

- L: The Holy Gospel according to Luke in the 1st chapter
- C: Glory to you, O Lord.
After those days his (Zechariah's) wife Elizabeth conceived, and for five months she remained in seclusion...
- L: The gospel of the Lord.
- C: Praise to you, O Christ.
