

Today’s reading

Matthew narrates one of Jesus’ controversial parables in which Jesus says that the reign of God is like that of a landowner who pays his workers the same wage no matter what time of day they began to work. In baptism we receive the grace of God that is freely given to all. As Martin Luther wrote, in the presence of God’s mercy we are all beggars.

† For peace in our world and care for all those who are suffering from natural disasters.

† Health concerns: Nancy, Patricia, & Debbie (Robin Freeman’s friends); Brooke & Chris Brase praying for a safe & healthy pregnancy & birth (Robin T’s niece); Lewis Johnson Montana State Trooper (Robin T’s relative); Miller family, and Jean (Caplinger friends); and those awaiting surgery.

† Those who suffer from mental illness, especially those who struggle to get adequate treatment and that those who suffer are also treated with full dignity and respect.

† For all those who are seeking housing.

Lead us back to you and set us on the right path; in the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.
- L: Beloved in Christ, God’s justice stretches beyond all understanding. God’s compassion is beyond compare. In Jesus, God is always making a new way for us. In ✝ Christ, you are already and always forgiven.
