

Disabled War Veteran Hired

Workforce Central's Veterans Employment Representative, Bill Ryan, has been assisting a disabled war veteran who is named James who is 100% disabled and having difficulties securing a job. James has been working tirelessly with Bill at Workforce Central utilizing the career center services. Bill Ryan suggested that James attend Workforce Central's annual Uncommon Job Fair. James recently followed up with Bill via email to let him know the great news.

"I was hired as a personal banker for Commerce Bank! The UnCommon Job Fair was a resounding success for me because I got many interviews after attending it and I eventually decided to pursue banking with Commerce Bank."
