

NETWORK OF JEWISH HUMAN SERVICE AGENCIES 2021 AWARDS

Extraordinary Leadership Awards in Response to COVID Information & Guidelines

The Network is comprised of an exceptionally strong cadre of dedicated professionals and lay leaders who work tirelessly to improve the lives of others. The NJHSA Extraordinary Leadership Award is designed to publicize the efforts of one professional and one lay leader who work attentively to address the human service needs of their local community, especially their response to COVID. Honorees may be CEO's/ED's, professionals or volunteers. Winners will be announced prior to the Conference. The Conference platform will include brief biographies and photos of the honorees and honorees will receive a beautiful award and recognition at the Thursday presentation. Honorees must attend the Conference to receive the award.

Extraordinary Leadership Awards in Response to COVID Submission Form

- I. Honoree Information
  - a. Please indicate whether this award will be a surprise to the honoree
  - b. Name of Honoree
  - c. Title of Honoree
  - d. Agency of Honoree
  - e. Length of Service to Agency
  - f. Biography of Honoree (300-word max) describing their service to the Agency
  - g. Why is this Honoree Extraordinary? (300-word max)
  - h. Attached headshot
- II. Contact Information
  - a. Contact Person's Name
  - b. Contact Person's Title
  - c. Contact Person's Telephone Number
  - d. Contact Person's Email Address

Submissions are due electronically to Megan Manelli, Director of Marketing and Communications by Friday, February 26th. Agencies must be in good standing with NJHSA. Award winners are required to send a representative to the Conference. Winners will be announced to the Network and broader community prior to the Conference. The Conference platform will include summaries of the wining pillars and extraordinary leaders. Winning agencies will receive a beautiful award and recognition at one of the plenary presentations.