Great Marsh Seltzer Benefit for Care Dimensions Walk for Hospice

Danvers, MA – Beginning this week and for the month of October, Great Marsh Brewing Company in Essex is holding a promotion to benefit Care Dimensions Walk for Hospice by dedicating a portion of their Saturday sales of craft hard seltzers – “loaded with taste and only 80 calories!”

“Our giving is deeply personal and we’re glad to be doing this for Care Dimensions,” said John Collins, Great Marsh founder. “We care about our community, how Care Dimensions supports our families, and the positive effect hospice and palliative care has on people’s lives.”

“We are grateful to John and Great Marsh for hosting this promotion to raise vital funds for Care Dimensions,” said Donna Deveau, vice president of philanthropy. “It’s inspiring to see community businesses and families committed to supporting us through their fundraising events. Their personal involvement and dedication to our cause brings meaning to our mission.”

Stop by the Great Marsh taproom and the outdoor patio to enjoy seltzer flavors from açai to watermelon or mix them to create your own. Visit 99 Main Street in Essex and www.thegreatmarsh.com for hours and home delivery.
