

10 Union Street
Manchester-by-the-Sea

THURSDAY, JULY 28 | 5 – 7 PM

The Greater Cape Ann Chamber and the Manchester Historical Museum invite you to mingle with your fellow greater Cape Ann business colleagues, enjoy drinks and hors d'oeuvres under the tent, and join for a ribbon cutting at 6 PM celebrating the museum's new exhibit, Manchester 1772!

MANCHESTER 1772!

A SMALL TOWN ON THE EVE OF THE REVOLUTION

This exhibit highlights various aspects of life 250 years ago: the physical nature of Manchester-by-the-Sea (neighborhoods, coves and beaches), its families and buildings, work, politics, and church, bereavement, and Col. Jeremiah Lee.

Please register to attend at: bit.ly/BAHatMHM

(Registration is limited so reserve your spot early!)

