Security Health Plan CEO named a Wisconsin Titan 100

The Titan 100 organization selected Security Health Plan of Wisconsin Chief Executive Officer, Krista Hoglund, as one of the 2024 Wisconsin Titan 100. The Titan 100 is a national organization that recognizes the top 100 CEOs and C-level executives in a region. According to the Titan 100 organization, hundreds of applicants competed for this prestigious honor with the final list of Titans being recognized for demonstrating exceptional leadership, vision, passion and influence in their collective fields.

The Titan 100 includes leaders from a variety of industries including manufacturing, technology, health care, construction/real estate, electric/power, education, banking/finance, professional services and non-profit organizations among others. Honorees are chosen from the following regions: Chicago, Colorado, Georgia, Philadelphia, Phoenix, St. Louis and Wisconsin.

“As a Wisconsin Titan 100, I am excited to share the incredible success we have achieved here at Security Health Plan. I look forward to connecting with fellow Titans nationwide to share ideas, collaborate on innovative business solutions and learn from colleagues from various industries,” said Security Health Plan Chief Executive Officer, Krista Hoglund.

According to Titan 100, this year's list of Wisconsin Titans and their companies collectively employ more than 263,000 individuals and generate over $86 billion dollars in annual revenues.
