

Webinars for 2021!
Second Tuesday of Every Month
12:00PM to 1:00PM

ForestHER is a workshop series created with women landowners in mind. This year we have a variety of workshop dates and topics! Learn about forests and woodland management in a relaxed, fun setting that is right for you.

For more information:
Bence Carter
Phone: 334.389.4055
Email: jbc0057@auburn.edu

January

ForestHER: Landowner Laws You Should Know
January 12, 2021

In this session, visiting Professor, Dr. Robert Tufts, discusses important landowner laws like timber trespass, adverse possession and landowner liability. Preregistration is required through the ZOOM link provided.

Registration:
<https://www.aces.edu/go/foresther-laws>

February

ForestHER: Timber Sales
February 9, 2021

In this session, Regional Agent and Registered Forester, Drew Metzler, discusses timber sales and the differences between "Per Unit" and "Lump Sum". Preregistration is required through the ZOOM link provided.

Registration:
<https://www.aces.edu/go/foresther-timbersale>

March

ForestHER: Summer Wildlife Management
March 9, 2021

In this session, Regional Extension Agent and Wildlife Biologist, Bence Carter, discusses wildlife management strategies and techniques that can be conducted between the hunting seasons. Preregistration is required through the ZOOM link provided.

Registration:
<https://www.aces.edu/go/foresther-wildlife>

April

ForestHER: Connection of Water Quality & Forest Health
April 13, 2021

In this session, Alabama Water Watch discusses the critical connection between water quality and overall health of southern forests. Preregistration is required through the ZOOM link provided.

Registration:
<https://www.aces.edu/go/foresther-water>

May

ForestHER: Invasive Plants of Southern Forests
May 11, 2021

In this session, Regional Extension Agent, Ryan Mitchell, discusses some of the invasive plants that plague southern forests and how to effectively manage for them. Preregistration is required through the ZOOM link provided.

Registration:
<https://www.aces.edu/go/foresther-invasives>

June

ForestHER: Pond Management Basics
June 8, 2021

In this session, Regional Extension Agent, Norm Haley, discusses the basics of managing recreational fishing ponds on your property. Preregistration is required through the ZOOM link provided.

Registration:
<https://www.aces.edu/go/foresther-ponds>

July

ForestHER: Skinny on Thinning

July 13, 2021

In this session, Extension Specialist and Assistant Professor, Dr. Adam Maggard, discusses the benefits of thinning southern forests and recognizing when it is time. Preregistration is required through the ZOOM link provided.

Registration:

<https://www.aces.edu/go/foresther-thinning>

September

ForestHER: Forest Stand Dynamics

September 14, 2021

In this session, Forestry Professor, Dr. John Kush, discusses how southern forests responds to disturbances, as well as change over time. Preregistration is required through the ZOOM link provide

Registration:

<https://www.aces.edu/go/foresther-standdynamics>

November

ForestHER: Alternative Income Opportunities

November 9, 2021

In this session, Extension Specialist and Assistant Professor, Dr. Adam Maggard, discusses alternative opportunities to generate revenue from your forestland. Preregistration is required through the ZOOM link provided.

Registration:

<https://www.aces.edu/go/foresther-alternativeincome>

August

ForestHER: Forest Management Plans

August 10, 2021

In this session, Regional Extension Agent, Lynn Dickinson, discusses the importance of having a management plan and how to establish one. Preregistration is required through the ZOOM link provided.

Registration:

<https://www.aces.edu/go/foresther-managementplan>

October

ForestHER: Forestry Terminology and Tools

October 12, 2021

In this session, Extension Specialist and Forestry Professor, Dr. Becky Barlow, discusses the tools and terminology of forest management. This session will help any landowner become a better communicator with their land management professional.

Preregistration is required through the ZOOM link provided.

Registration:

<https://www.aces.edu/go/foresther-terminology>

December

ForestHER: Wild Pigs...should I that they're on my land?

December 14, 2021

In this session, Regional Extension Agent and Wildlife Biologist, Bence Carter, discusses the impacts that wild pigs have on our native ecosystems and how to effectively manage them. Preregistration is required through the ZOOM link provided.

Registration:

<https://www.aces.edu/go/foresther-wildpigs>

