

There is something for everyone in this dynamic list of programs currently hiring/recruiting high school students:

1. Mayor's Youth Employment and Education Program (MYEEP) Now Hiring
2. Band of Environmentally Educated and Employable Teens (BEETS) Now Hiring
3. Fall Art Classes at Youth Art Exchange Now Accepting Applications
4. de Young Museum Ambassador Program Now Accepting Applications
5. SF YouthWorks is Now Hiring
6. Oasis for Girls Now Accepting Applications
7. Southern Exposure Youth Artist Mentorship Program Now Accepting Applications
8. UCSF HealthLink Program Now Accepting Applications
9. Next Gen Tracks with BAVC Now Accepting Applications
10. Pathways Career Ahead Program Now Accepting Applications

1. Mayor's Youth Employment and Education Program (MYEEP) Now Hiring

MYEEP is now accepting applications for their paid internship program. MYEEP provides internship training and job placement for SF youth ages 14-17. Applications are due by Friday, September 9. Apply here.

2. Band of Environmentally Educated and Employable Teens (BEETS) Now Hiring

Do you enjoy working outdoors, working with kids, and want to learn new job skills? The BEETS program is now hiring for the October 2016 - May 2017 program. This paid internship will allow you to learn how to grow healthy food, work with a diverse group of peers, teach kids, and positively impact the community. BEETS interns will learn about food justice and how community gardens play a part in bringing equality to our food system. Applications are due by Friday, September 9. Apply here.

3. Fall Art Classes at Youth Art Exchange Now Accepting Applications

Youth Art Exchange offers free year-round programming for San Francisco public high school students. All classes are free to attend, and several programs include stipends for participation. This fall classes are being offered in Printmaking, Black and White Photography, Fashion Design, Dance Team, Digital Beatmaking in collaboration with SFJAZZ, Introduction to Architecture, Advanced Architecture Firm. Applications are due by Monday, September 12. Apply here.

4. de Young Museum Ambassador Program Now Accepting Applications

The Museum Ambassador Program trains teens to become empowered museum and art teachers. Ambassadors go into the San Francisco community to teach art projects as well as give tours through the collection to 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students. This is a paid opportunity that also includes official de Young Museum employee status. Applications are available in the SSO and in the Main Office and are due by Monday, September 12. For more information, please contact: museumambassadors@famsf.org or 415.750.3520.

5. SF YouthWorks is Now Hiring

It's that time of the year again! The SF YouthWorks school year session application is now available. YouthWorks hires high school youth to work as interns in city government offices, libraries and recreation facilities. YouthWorks interns will work up to ten hours per week from October through April, and will be paid $13.00 per hour. Applicants must be in the 11th or 12th grade, live and attend school in San Francisco, be interested in exploring a career in government, and have the ability to work at least 6 hours per week after school. Youth gain important work experience while learning about careers in public service. Applications are due by Friday, September 12. Apply here.

6. Oasis for Girls Now Accepting Applications

Oasis For Girls partners with girls and young women of color from under-resourced communities to help them cultivate the skills, knowledge and confidence to discover their dreams and build strong futures. They offer paid learning opportunities for young women every Fall, Spring, and Summer. Programs focus in the areas of life skills, the arts and career readiness. Application are due by Friday, September 2. Apply here.

7. Southern Exposure Youth Artist Mentorship Program Now Accepting Applications

Southern Exposure is now accepting applications from youth artists for the 2016–2017 One-on-One Mentorship Program. This highly individualized art program is free and open to all Bay Area youth. The One-on-One Mentorship Program offers youth (ages 16-21) the opportunity to engage with an individual professional visual artist. One-on-one pairs of adult and youth artists work together weekly at SoEx for an entire school year, culminating in an exhibition in Spring 2017. This program aims to develop artistic, educational and life skills by combining the benefits of mentoring relationships with art education. This program is for intermediate to advanced youth artists. The program meets weekly from October 2016 through May 2017. Applications are due by Friday, September 23. Apply here.

8. UCSF HealthLink Program Now Accepting Applications

The HealthLink Program is designed to reach high school students in the greater Bay Area that are underrepresented in the health professions. One Saturday a month students meet on the UCSF Parnassus campus for hands-on workshops that allow students to explore the wonders of the human body as they intersect with the various health professions. Each student is paired with a graduate level health profession mentor currently enrolled in either medical, dental, pharmacy, nursing or physical therapy school. To qualify for this program you must be first generation college bound high school student (sophomores are given preference), considered disadvantaged or from an underrepresented community. A teacher nomination is needed to apply. Please let Ms. McMinn or Ms. Kamen know if you are interested. Applications are due by Friday, September 23. Apply here.

9. Next Gen Tracks with BAVC Now Accepting Applications

Learn how to tell your own story through audio, video, and design using industry-standard equipment and software in a supportive, collaborative environment. Under the instruction of award-winning filmmakers, coders, and practicing artists and musicians, Next Gen participants, ages 14-18, receive unparalleled technical training in a creative community of peers, along with opportunities for professional growth and direct access to industry professionals. All of BAVC's youth programs are entirely free of cost (and provide snacks!) for all participants. Applications for Fall 2016 are due Friday, September 16th. Apply here.

10. Pathways Career Ahead Program Now Accepting Applications

The Pathways Program is a career awareness and job readiness program aimed to prepare high school students for the world of work and expose them to meaningful educational and career opportunities. Over a 9-week cycle, students participate in a series of workshops and individual sessions. Students who complete the program, receive access to a job bank for teens and priority job placement. Applications are due by Wednesday, September 21. Apply here.