Know More, Do More: Recognizing & Responding to Stalking

Tuesday, September 28, 2021 8:45-1:00 (doors open at 8:30)
Harborview Conference Room

Know More, Do More: Recognizing & Responding to Stalking Presented by: Jenn Landuis & Dana Fleitman Stalking Prevention, Awareness Resource Center

Stalking is a prevalent, dangerous and often misunderstood crime. This session explores the dynamics of stalking, focusing on the highly contextual nature of the crime by discussing common tactics used by offenders (including the use of technology to stalk) and stalking's co-occurrence with domestic and sexual violence. The presentation will also provide practical tools and strategies to assess risk, plan for victim safety, and hold offenders accountable. Topics that will be covered are Stalking Prevalence, Lethality, and Impact, Stalking and Intimate Partner Violence, Stalking and Sexual Assault, The Use of Technology to Stalk, Stalking Risk Assessment, and Working with Victims of Stalking/Safety Planning.

Stalking Through our Local Lens Presented By: Sgt. Meaghan Cunningham, Barnstable Police Department, Presiding Justice Judge John Julian, and Assistant District Attorney Michael Patterson, Chief of Domestic Violence Unit

Presenters will share local case examples and best practices to build stronger cases for prosecuting the crime of stalking.

Who should attend: Law enforcement officers, probation officers, ADAs, victim/witness advocates, SDV advocates, court personnel, dispatchers, medical, mental health and human service personnel, IPAEP facilitators, SANE nurses, military members, any first responder or professional who interacts with survivors of sexual and domestic violence
