Speakers representing LGBTQIA+, Jews, Blacks, Indigenous/Native Americans, and other People of Color (BIPOC), will facilitate conversations to critically examine how we can nurture and grow health equity and human rights for all in today's contentious and polarized environment of hate, intolerance, xenophobia, and violence. Participants will exchange ideas, brainstorm solutions, and propose community-wide Action Plans. NOTE: Two sessions with similar content will be held, on the Upper/Mid Cape and Lower/Outer Cape, for your convenience. Please select one session.
