

ANNOUNCEMENT

Town of Bourne

Human Service Grant Program FY25

Applications will be accepted until Friday, July 26, 2023 4:30 pm

The Town of Bourne, through the Human Services Committee, is soliciting proposals from interested public or private, state and federally recognized non-profit organizations or partnerships to deliver Human Service related projects, programs and services to the residents of Bourne, MA. Programs and services should address human service related needs of residents of the Town of Bourne that are not currently being provided or that are not sufficiently meeting the level of need identified. Proposals must describe the specific human service need for which town funding is being sought and provide relevant and supporting data that documents the need.
