Ohio's largest source of public funding for wastewater system planning, design, and construction will be making its annual call for future infrastructure project nominations in August. To find out more about Ohio's Water Pollution Control Loan Fund (WPCLF) program and how it might benefit your community, please join our webinar. During this webinar, you will learn about the variety of projects that can be funded through the program, the different types of loans and associated incentives we offer, and important milestones in our loan review and approval process. We will also highlight special items of interest, such as principal forgiveness funding, and loans for stormwater projects.
