

Boyne Citizen Ethics Policy

Boyne Citizen reports news and information about the Boyne area accurately, faithfully, and ethically in a timely and useful manner, guided by the Society of Professional Journalists' Code of Ethics.

Boyne Citizen subscribes to the following standards of editorial independence:

- Boyne Citizen retains full authority over editorial content to protect the best journalistic and business interests of our organization.
- Boyne Citizen maintains a firewall between news coverage decisions and all sources of revenue. Acceptance of financial support does not constitute implied or actual endorsement of donors or their products, services or opinions.
- Boyne Citizen accepts donations and grants from individuals and organizations for the general support of our activities, but our news judgments are made independently and not based on donor support.
- Boyne Citizen may consider donations to support the coverage of particular topics, but our organization maintains editorial control of the coverage. We will cede no right of review or influence of editorial content.
