

Boyne Citizen Political Candidacy Policy

As part of its mission to promote civic engagement, Boyne Citizen accepts paid advertising from candidates for elective political office without regard to party affiliation.

Political postings need to meet the following criteria:

- The submitted postings must be clearly labeled as candidate ads, and the person or group who pays for them must be clearly identified.
- Readers may be directed to the candidate's website, but there can be no appeal for donations.
- Mention of other candidates or use of their likenesses are not permitted.
