

Boyne Citizen

Advertise your business in Boyne Citizen!

Here's how -

You can reach the Boyne Area audience by advertising in Boyne Citizen, the area's weekly local digital news source.

Six months after launch, Boyne Citizen has achieved over 1,600 subscribers with an 80% open rate and new subscribers adding each week.

Reach this targeted local market with your advertisement.

SPRING SPECIAL commit by 5/31/2025

| | |
|--|--------------------------------|
| Body of the newsletter | $100 each |
| Commit to 6 ads in a year for the price of 5 in newsletter body! | $600 $500 special |

Ads are 700 pixels wide either square or horizontal, in JPEG or PNG file formats. We can create your ad for you if you wish.

To book your ad or for more information
email jim@boynecitizen.com or call (231) 675-8793.

The full cast of Boyne Meets Broadway.

Boyne Meets Broadway Thursday thru Saturday

Boyne Meets Broadway tickets are on sale for performances at 7 p.m. Thursday through Saturday, Nov. 14, 15 and 16 in the Performing Arts Center at Boyne City High School. Tickets are $10 for all seats, which are available from cast members, from the high school office M-F 8 a.m.-4 p.m., and at the door starting at 6 p.m. each evening (until sold out).

Boyne Meets Broadway is a variety show style performance involving about 50 high school students - 43 on stage and 7 stage crew. Students will be performing numbers from Wicked, 9 to 5, Grease, Hairspray, Shucked, Arnie, Waitress, Band Stand, Newswise and many more. Directors are Michael and Jan Houser, Erin and Stephen Zucker, Charles Garson and Taylor Swaim.

The pre-show dinner offered through the BCHS Hospitality Department on Friday is sold out. The BCHS Jazz Band will perform during Friday's dinner, as well as a small group of BC Middle School Drama students. The Jazz Band will also perform before the Saturday, Nov. 16, show starting at 6 p.m. No ticket is needed to listen to the jazz band that night.

Boyne Meets Broadway started in 1993 as a dinner theater collaboration between the BCHS Drama Department and Stafford's One Water Street restaurant in downtown Boyne City. Students performed around the dining room tables as patrons enjoyed a multi-course meal. BMB was also performed at Boyne Mountain for a couple of years and then found its current home in our high school starting in 2005.

A STAR RETURNS - Former BCHS Drama Department star William Raveau will be performing at the high school performing Arts Center at 7 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 30. William is back performing in his hometown for the first time since 2019, and he will be backed by local pianist Phil McLeellan. You can purchase tickets online for $25 or $35. High school students can buy tickets for $13, one ticket per student ID. A portion of the proceeds will benefit the BCHS Drama Department.

BODY OF NEWSLETTER

Main Street kicks off holiday season with Earlier Than The Bird on Nov. 23

Boyne City Main Street is planning a trio of Christmas season events with shopping and the annual Santa Parade as the holiday focus.

EARLIER THAN THE BIRD gets the holiday season started early in the morning of November 23, the Saturday before Thanksgiving. Downtown stores have special offers for shoppers dressed in their pajamas (sweets don't count!) from 7 to 11 a.m.

ad in business market

1119 West St.,
Boyne City, MI 49712
www.boynecitizen.com