

2017 Lending Conference

Co-sponsored by IBANYS & T.Gschwender & Associates

Marriott Syracuse Downtown
100 East Onondaga Street
Syracuse, NY 13202

May 9-10, 2017

OVERVIEW

In today's rate environment and current market conditions, the lending and credit process presents both opportunities and challenges to community banks. Whether the issue is mortgage lending, consumer lending, commercial lending or small business lending, community banks face stiff competition and increased regulatory oversight and compliance mandates. This program is designed to examine some of the lending avenues available to local independent banks, and how they can impact the bottom line.

LENDING CONFERENCE

May 9-10, 2017

Syracuse Marriott
Downtown
Syracuse, NY

AGENDA

Tuesday, May 9

11:00 a.m. — REGISTRATION

11:30—12:30 p.m. — NETWORKING LUNCH & OPENING REMARKS

John Witkowski, President & CEO, IBANYS

12:30—1:20 p.m. — The Evolving Digital & Mobile Lending Landscape

Robert Giltner, Chairman, RCGILTNER Services, Inc. and Trevor Knott, Senior Vice President, Business Development, BSG Financial Group

Community banks today hold less than 10% of small business loans under $100,000 and less than 5% of consumer loans under $50,000. Cloud-based digital lending technology provides an efficient and profitable way to deliver loan services to these markets and grow revenues 20% or more. Moreover, the technology enables banks to deliver the kind of "digital experience" customers are increasingly demanding (and finding elsewhere). This session will explore the digital lending market and revenue potential for your bank, including:

- Choices community banks have in implementing cloud-based lending technology
- Approaches to make your existing processes more efficient through digital lending
- Ways to integrate digital lending with your bank's overall lending and digital strategy

1:20 – 2:10 p.m. — Managing Credit Risk – Best Practices

Bharpur "Bo" Singh, President & Owner, T. Gschwender & Associates
2017 is upon us. Improving economy. Rising interest rate environment. Stable net loan losses back to 2006 levels. New administration focused on reducing regulatory burden. Based on our experience of conducting loan reviews for over 30 years, we will discuss what you can do to ensure credit concerns do not inordinately impact your financial institution going forward.

2:10—2:20 p.m. — NETWORKING BREAK

2:20 – 3:10 p.m.

Five Reasons Why Development Projects Lose Money

Bob Scales, Managing Director, CodeFi Solutions

Commercial and Residential Project loans truly are the "bread and butter" for many community banks but these kinds of loans are also under increased scrutiny from our regulators. A look at the loss experience on these loans during the Great Recession offer reasons for this concern, however, this portfolio is simply too important to our profitability to discard. Our session will focus on the major reasons for problems in this kind of lending and offer solutions to enhance how we manage these project risks in the future.

3:10 – 4:00 p.m.

The Real Price of Risk: Rating Risk, Pricing Loans, and the ALLL

Tim McPeak, Senior Risk Management Consultant, Sageworks

Risk ratings are the basis for understanding credit risk in the portfolio, yet many institutions struggle to maintain and apply an objective risk rating system. Accurate risk ratings allow institutions to better price loans and account for risk in the allowance for loan and lease losses (ALLL). This session will cover the basics of identifying risk, pricing it appropriately and reflecting it in the reserve.

4:00 – 4:10 p.m. — NETWORKING BREAK

4:10 – 5:00 p.m.

Working with Lenders to Proactively Build the Best Portfolios

Craig Poms, SVP & Bank Partnership Director, LSQ Funding

Much of the lender focus on building pipelines is often centered around COI's (Centers of Influence). This is certainly important, but doesn't always build the best pipelines as it is dependent on the relationships from that COI. To build the best pipelines the lender has to focus on identifying the best companies in their market and then be proactive in approaching those companies. This session will discuss how you identify those companies, the best practices for establishing a dialogue and then the best practices for keeping the effort organized and moving forward. The result is a method that allows lenders to always have a quality pipeline that continues to feed itself.

5:00 p.m. — ADJOURN

5:30 – 6:30 p.m. — COCKTAIL RECEPTION

6:30 – 8:30 p.m. — DINNER

Wednesday, May 10

7:30 – 8:30 a.m. — NETWORKING BREAKFAST

8:30 – 9:20 a.m.

Credit Stress Testing: What Examiners Expect and Steps to Deliver

Elizabeth Williams, Managing Director – Special Projects, CEIS Review

In the new regulatory regime, stress testing is not optional, it's a must. Walk through the steps, as outlined by the FDIC, to build your bank's credit stress test. Discuss the new yardsticks banks must understand to test how future scenarios would affect your institution's capital adequacy. Summarize the essential data, tools and methods you will need to properly plan for your bank's capital needs under stressed scenarios and ensure your plans pass regulatory scrutiny. Also learn how to construct a Basic Portfolio Level Stress Test and walk through a sample analysis of actual stress tests results.

9:20 – 10:10 a.m.

Enhancing Growth through the Secondary Loan Market & Trends in Loan Participations

David Brooks, Associate-Membership, Alliance Partners

The secondary loan market has been extremely active over the last 18 months as banks throughout the United States manage varying levels of loan demand. This informative session will explore how banks are taking advantage of this specialized market and delve in the regulatory and underwriting issues that all banks need to be aware of. We will review top industry practices, regulatory requirements, and the role of due diligence.

10:10 – 10:20 a.m. — NETWORKING BREAK

10:20 – 11:10 a.m.

Preparing For the Next Down Cycle — Is Your Bank Prepared?

David Ruffin, Director, DHG Credit Risk Management

With uncertainty in the global markets and the U.S. economy, another downturn may be just around the corner. This session will address how your bank can best mitigate risk in your commercial loan portfolio by being prepared for the next downturn. This session will address topics including what should you be concerned about as an independent director, what was learned from the last down cycle, best practices for non-performing loans and more.

11:10—12:00

Qualifying Loan Platform Topic

Dan Crowley, CLS Bankershare

12:00 – 12:50 p.m.

The Loan Committee – Past Mistakes, Future Promise

Karl Nelson, Founder & CEO, KPN Consulting

There is nothing like a banking crisis to create doubts about existing practices and given the fact that our loan portfolio is typically the major issue in a crisis, how we present and approve loans is always under scrutiny. Our session will focus on practices with both the Management and Board Loan Committee process that led to problems in understanding the true risk of our loan portfolio then discuss what steps are being taken to avoid this issue in the future.

12:50 – 1:30 p.m. — NETWORKING LUNCH

2:30 p.m. — ADJOURN
