

Commissioner
Kionne McGhee
District 9

In Celebration of Black History Month, a Collaboration with Miami-Dade County Commissioner Kionne McGhee with Small Business Development Division presents

The History of Black Business in Miami

TO ENGAGE THE BLACK BUSINESS COMMUNITY, SHARE ITS HISTORY,
AND IMPORTANT RESOURCES WITH THE COMMUNITY.

Friday, February 18, 2022
AT 10:00 AM - 12:00 NOON

JOE AND ENID W. DEMPS PARK (FORMERLY KNOWN AS GOULD'S PARK)
11350 SW 216 STREET, MIAMI, FL 33170

This will be a discussion with historical black businesses located in Miami who have been in business for more than 15-20 years that are still thriving. They will share their story, how they survived, how things have changed over the years, and what would they do differently today if they had to.

Hear from these local iconic businesses within the community like: Henrys Dry Cleaners, Bilmor Advertising, Able Business Solutions, Cherokee Enterprises, Inc. and more. Also obtain information on the Mom & Pop Grants for District 9.

Agencies invited to provide community resources to the community include:

- Community Action & Human Services Department (CAHSD)
- Neighbors & Neighbors Association
- Thrive305
- MDEAT
