

i.c.stars staff and current cohort 13 (pictured left), Event MC Jamar Jones of Foureva Media proudly showcasing his promotional sign (below)

Cycle 13 was challenged with a unique RFP for a joint business endeavor. Gee's Clippers, the Midwest's largest barber shop, is also the first to house a free walk in community clinic in its building. Froedtert Health Care and Gee's Clippers wrote the RFP to revamp his existing website to also showcase the features of the clinic. The winning team was Quantum Trifecta, shown (to the left) are: Gee Smith proprietor of Gee's Clippers with cycle 13 interns Olivia Veloz, Jimmy Her and Deisy Diaz.

Alumni Achievement Award presented by Dale Mittelstaedt from Novus Home Mortgage to Gabi Hart from Cycle 7 above. Our audience was fully engaged in the program. (right)

I.C.STARS IOPENER - THE PHOTO RECAP

Our amazing panel on AI kept the audience entertained and informed. Moderator David Manske, Dr. Derek Riley, Allen Smith, and John W. Daniels IV covered topics on generative AI, Generational Impact, Educational Impact, and what the next generation fears most if their voice is stifled from the AI conversation.

Up Next - Star Bash - 11.29.23

Keynote Speaker was Ginney McAdams, Data and AI Director Specialist at Microsoft. She educated us on everything from the fact that the term 'Artificial Intelligence' was first coined in 1955, showed us that AI is already everywhere we are and showed how Copilot will be able to handle our inboxes, chats, and calendars to prepare us for upcoming meetings and where next generation data will be going with AI.

i.c.stars once again thanks our valued event sponsors!

NOVUS HOME MORTGAGE

BADER PHILANTHROPIES, INC. CELEBRATING COMPASSION

CHECK POINT

dialpad

FOX World Travel

INSPYR SOLUTIONS

FOUREVA MEDIA

nvisia connect. build. enable.