& Native Americans in Science*

USD Chapter Meeting

Tuesday, November 14 | 12:30 p | Serra 215

SACNAS is a national organization devoted to training and supporting the next generation of diverse STEM talent. The SACNAS Chapter at USD is a source of both opportunity and motivation as you further your STEM education and career. We plan to provide information on research, graduate school, and fellowships and help you apply for travel scholarships to attend the SACNAS National Conference.
