GNJ Worship Series: Courageous
Worship Theme: Courage to be Vulnerable

January 17, 2021 2nd Sunday after Epiphany 10:15AM

Welcome to worship with Centenary United Methodist Church!
Today we gather as an online community to worship together.
Please light a candle to symbolize the presence of the Holy Spirit.

Welcome Pastor Sooah

Call to Worship

L: God has called us to gather together as beloved children.
P: We come ready to share our authentic selves, our hearts, with God and one another.
L: Wherever we are in our faith journey, God meets us right where we are, calling us out from isolation and fear into sacred community.
P: We come to humbly praise and worship the One who chose vulnerability for the sake of perfect love.

Opening Prayer

Glorious God, Jesus became vulnerable to the human experience; he came to be with us, brought healing to our relationship with God, and set us on a path to become our full selves. He came to be for others and with others. Lead us to take the same risk of growing together. Help us develop our vulnerability and courage, that we may help others feel safe and be vulnerable in community, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Doxology

Offering Prayer
God of perfect love, we ask that you receive these gifts of tithes and offering as a sign of our knees bending before you, of our tongues confessing that you are God. Pour out your blessings upon these gifts that they might serve others in humble love that glorifies your holy name. Amen.

Closing Hymn Sanctuary TFWS #2164

Benediction by Nancy C. Townley
We do not know what the future will hold for us, but we are assured that whatever happens, God is with us! Therefore, be courageous, dear people of God. Follow Jesus boldly to the cross and beyond. Go to offer God’s love and peace to all. Amen.
