Facts About ANHOC

Five Chambers of Commerce and the North Houston Association representing approximately 65,000 businesses join together to represent the interests of business to our legislators in Austin each biennium.

ANHOC (The Alliance of North Houston Chambers):

- Was created in 1994 for the purpose of fostering regional support and cooperation by area business associations
- Has proven to be an effective tool for facilitating regional economic development and joint discussions on public policy issues of concern to the region's businesses
- According to the bylaws, ANHOC relies on the governing bodies of the individual chambers to propose, review and approve legislative positions and regional policy statements
- For a position paper or policy statement to be adopted as an official ANHOC position, it must be approved by the Board of Directors of all of the ANHOC member organizations
