

Dr. Bhattacharjee is an automotive crash safety technical specialist, a Six-Sigma MBB, former university faculty member, & researcher with 25 yrs of work in automotive industry, structural engineering consulting firms, and in university teaching & research.

Dr. Bhattacharjee's technical specialties include vehicle crashworthiness, pedestrian protection, analysis & design of automotive structures, finite element methods, structural dynamics, fracture mechanics, fatigue, statistics & six sigma tool applications.