FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Unison Awarded 2024 Commerce Chenango Manufacturer of the Year

Norwich, NY – September 25, 2024 - Unison, a GE Aerospace company, is proud to announce that it has been honored with the 2024 Commerce Chenango Manufacturer of the Year award. This prestigious award recognizes Unison's significant contributions to the local community and ongoing commitment to manufacturing excellence.

Commerce Chenango has a storied tradition of manufacturing excellence, and Unison has been a cornerstone of this legacy for many years. The company's dedication to innovation, quality, and community engagement has made it a vital part of the region's economic and social fabric.

"We are deeply honored to receive the 2024 Commerce Chenango Manufacturer of the Year award," said Shannon Slack, site leader at Unison. "This recognition is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our entire team. We are committed to continuing our tradition of excellence and contributing to the prosperity of Chenango County."

In a demonstration of its ongoing commitment to the Norwich community, GE Aerospace recently invested $3.4 million into the Unison site. This investment will enhance the facility's capabilities, support advanced manufacturing processes, and ensure that Unison remains at the forefront of aerospace innovation.

"The recent investment by GE Aerospace further underscores our commitment to the future of Unison and the community as a whole," added Shannon Slack. "We are excited about the opportunities this investment will bring, including the creation of new jobs and the development of cutting-edge technologies."

Commerce Chenango's recognition of Unison highlights the company's role as a leader in the local manufacturing sector and its positive impact on the community.
