SUMMIT CLASSROOM POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Enrollment Policy: This course has an enrollment maximum of 16 students and a minimum of 5. If the minimum threshold is not met by the registration deadline, the course will be canceled.

Cancellation Policy: If you need to cancel your registration, please call us immediately. Cancellations prior to the start of the first session will receive a full refund of the program fee. Cancellations after the first session and prior to the start of the second session will receive a refund less a $100 cancellation fee. Cancellations after the second session and prior to the start of the third session will receive a refund less a $150 cancellation fee. No refunds will be granted once the third session begins. Please note that you must contact the Summit office directly to notify us that you wish to cancel your program. The cancellation refund will be applied based on the date of the call and not on the number of sessions the student has actually attended.

Behavior Policy: All students enrolled in a Summit course must maintain appropriate behavior at all times. Students must adhere to all school rules and regulations, respect their classmates and teachers, and contribute to a positive learning environment. Summit will not provide refunds to students expelled for behavioral reasons.

Extended Time: Extended time accommodations will not be offered during the scheduled practice tests. If you are approved for extended time and would like to use your accommodations, we would be happy to discuss alternative arrangements. Please give us a call at (800) 698-8867 (M-F 9:00am to 5:30pm).

Attendance/Make-Up Sessions: The schedule of classes has been pre-arranged with the host location. Students are required to attend each session. If a student must miss a practice test session, we will mail the test home for the student to complete. For more information on making up missed content, log in to our online portal following the missed class to read instructors' notes, or speak with the class instructor(s) directly. Summit will not offer makeup classes for missed lessons.

Weather/School Cancellations: If classes are cancelled at the school, our classes will also be cancelled. School cancellations will be announced by the school. Summit will email parents and students of a class cancellation as soon as we have that information. The class will be made up at the next available opportunity.

Materials: Course books will be distributed to students during the first instructional session of the class. Students are responsible for bringing supplies for personal use, such as pencils and calculators.

FINANCIAL AID TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Students who receive need-based financial assistance from their school are eligible to receive similar aid for the Summit course. Summit matches the percentage of need-based financial aid offered by the school and applies it to the total cost of the course, however, all students are subject to a $250 non-refundable course fee.

Please note that only the student's financial aid from the school, and no other sources, will be considered when calculating matching aid. Upon registration, students are required to pay the non-refundable course fee and fill out the Financial Assistance Form. Once we receive confirmation of financial assistance from your school, we will calculate a final course fee and bill you for any balance due.

Financial aid processing can take several weeks. Please call us at 1-800-698-8867 with any questions.
