Adult Bible & Life Class Guide

Sons & Daughters

- Where: Meets in Room 100 on the Main Level
- Sons & Daughters is a Bible & Life Group Led by three teachers, Rob Sheffer, George Barr and Luke Brown, who teach in rotation. We write our own curriculum and predominantly work through full books of the Bible chapter by chapter while also interjecting topical studies derived from passages we've studied. Out teaching style is a mixture of lecture and group discussion.

Travelers

- Where: Meets in Room 202A on the Main Level
- The Travelers class led by Mike Hladio gathers together to grow in their understanding on God's Word, fellowship, and learn how to apply His Word to everyday life. The class is an interactive discussion based class that primarily discusses the previous weeks sermon, while also utilizing a mixture of video and lecture.

Logos

- Where: Meets in the Room 111 Social Hall on the Lower Level
- The Logos class is led by Julie Adkins, Bob Fecher & Chris Thompson. This biblically based discussion class focuses their lessons on books of the Bible and books by sound Christian authors. The class financially supports two missionaries with ties to our class. The class also has social events to strengthen the sense of community.

Water's Edge

- Where: Meets in Room 201 on the Main Level
- The Water's Edge class lead by Milt & Lorelle Barney uses an inductive study method to learn Scripture. Through light homework, class members dig into various books of both the Old and New Testaments. Topics like creation, covenant, discipleship, worship, and many more are also studied. We invite you to come join us as we draw to our Lord as He reveals Himself through His Word.

Mary Martha

- Where: Meets in Room 200 on the Lower Level
- The Mary Martha class led by Janet Branch is a women's group seeking to grow in faith and develop authentic relationships of trust through Bible Study, prayer support, and fellowship. Women of all ages are welcome to join this Christ-centered, chronological Bible study as we examine scripture through class lecture and discussion.

Builders

- Where: Meets in Room 203 on the Main Level
- The Builders class has two teachers; Dave Ross & Steve Hart, who follow rotation cycle. The Builders class uses the Lifeway Explore-the-Bible series as they study the Old and New Testament. Our lessons explore the historical context of the Bible passage, using verse by verse exposition, on screen visual aids, class discussion, and modern day application. We welcome others to join us as we study God's word together and enjoy fellowship and periodic social events!
