

Dear Oklahoma Innovators,

TLG is happening right in your backyard! The City of Tulsa is set to host over 500 local government innovators this coming April and we want to give you $100 off registration! Keep reading for the good stuff...

The Alliance for Innovation's Transforming Local Government Conference is recognized for its dynamic content, which encourages team building, free thinking and fosters unprecedented ideas.

You will hear about some of the most innovative programs in North America, as well as from right here in Oklahoma.

- Oklahoma City will share their innovative ideas on succession planning
- The City of Tulsa will participate on a panel with the Cities of Dallas and Kansas City on their Lean Six Sigma initiatives
- City of Tulsa will talk about their TPSRides program has reduced costs and cut truancy rates

Attending TLG is a unique opportunity to participate in a national conference while keeping travel expenses low. To further assist you in attending the conference, all OK local government representatives are eligible for a coupon taking $100 off total registration. To access the coupon:

1. Select "Alliance Member or OK Local Gov't Professional" as your registration type on www.tlgconference.org
2. Go through the registration steps
3. On the CHECKOUT page, in the Fees box enter OKLAHOMA in the Total Order Discount box
4. Watch $100 come off your bill!
5. Then go to TLG Hotel to reserve your room at the host hotel before April 8 to receive the discounted rate (yay more savings!)

To learn more about the conference and to register you can go to <http://tlgconference.org/> or contact the Conference Director Brandi Allen by emailing ballen@transformgov.org or calling 602.496.1097 for more details.

Sincerely,

The Alliance for Innovation