

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE.....JAY COUNTY FAIR, PORTLAND, INDIANA

The Jay County Fair in Portland, Indiana has announced its big country show lineup for Thursday, July 13. This year, the Jay County Fair will feature Nashville hit maker Jerrod Niemann as the headliner for the concert with Trent Harmon, the reigning American Idol winner, as the opening act.

Jerrod Niemann is one of country music's most original and talented innovators. Niemann's hit songs include a duet, 'A little more love' with his good friend and labelmate Lee Brice, his platinum-certified multi-week number one smash "Drink to that all night", as well as "Lover, lover", "What do you want", "Shinin' on me", and the ballad "Only God could love you more". During his still short and successful career, he has earned award nominations from the Academy of Country Music, the Country Music Association, and CMT.

Trent Harmon who won the 2016 American Idol competition on national television hails from east Mississippi. Less than one week after taking the title during the final season of American Idol, Trent entered the billboard hot country songs chart with "Falling". He is best known for his big hit "There's a girl" which debuted on Fox and Friends summer concert series last year.

Tickets for the Jerrod Niemann and Trent Harmon country music night at the Jay County Fair are now available through ticketweb.com, with the ticket order form on the Jay County Fair website www.jaycountyfair.com, or by calling the fair office at 260-726-9616.
