

Book Lovers

May 2022

The first Saturday of every month, avid readers meet at Lanier Library to discuss books they've enjoyed (or not)! It's casual, enlightening, and there are no rules. Join the fun. Here are current favorites.

Fiction

A Narrow Door by Joanne Harris
Paradise by Abdulrazak Gurnah
The Bone Tree by Greg Iles
Midnight Champagne by Manette Ansay
Celestial Bodies by Jokha Alharthi
Lost in the Forest by Sue Miller
Old School by Tobias Wolff
Scoundrel by Bernard Cornwell
Booth by Karen Joy Fowler
The Magician by Colm Toibin
Deck the Hounds by David Rosenfelt
The Blue Edge of Midnight by Jonathon King
Midnight at Malabar House by Vaseem Kahn
Still Life by Sarah Wiman
The Henna Artist by Alka Joshi
The Secret Keeper of Jaipur by Alka Joshi
Something to Hide by Elizabeth George
The Final Case by David Guterson
A Town Called Solace by Mary Lawson
The Rosetti Letter by Christi Phillips
The House of Mirth by Edith Wharton
Hamnet by Maggie O'Farrell
Honor by Thrity Umrigar
Everybody's Son by Thrity Umrigar
Greenwich Park by Katherine Faulkner

Mystery

Three Paid Debts by Anne Perry
Track of the Cat by Nevada Barr

Bruno's Challenge by Martin Walker
The Sacred Bridge by Anne Hillerman

Biography

The Pioneers by David McCullough

Nonfiction

My Father, the Pornographer by Chris Offutt