The Liturgy of the Word

Welcome The Rev. Andrew Rutledge

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Opening Hymn 707 Take my life and let it be (see following page)

1. Take my life and let it be con - se - crat - ed, Lord, to thee;
 2. Take my voice, and let me sing al - ways, on - ly, for my King;

take my mo - ments and my days, let them flow in cease - less praise.
 take my in - tel - lect, and use ev - ery power as thou shalt choose.

Take my hands and let them move at the im - pulse of thy love;
 Take my will and make it thine; it shall be no long - er mine.

take my mo - ments and my days, let them flow in cease - less praise.
 take my in - tel - lect, and use ev - ery power as thou shalt choose.

The Collect of the Day

The Celebrant says to the people

The Lord be with you.

People And also with you

Celebrant Let us pray

Almighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, you know our necessities before we ask and our ignorance in asking: Have compassion on our weakness, and mercifully give us those things which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask; through the worthiness of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lessons

A Reading from the Book of Amos 8:1-12

This is what the Lord GOD showed me~ a basket of summer fruit. He said, "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then the LORD said to me,

"The end has come upon my people Israel;

I will never again pass them by.

The songs of the temple shall become wailings in that day,"

says the Lord GOD;

"the dead bodies shall be many, cast out in every place. Be silent!"

Hear this, you that trample on the needy, and bring to ruin the poor of the land, saying, "When will the new moon be over so that we may sell grain;

and the sabbath,
so that we may offer wheat for sale?
We will make the ephah small and the shekel great,
and practice deceit with false balances, buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, and selling the sweepings of the wheat."
The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob:
Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.
Shall not the land tremble on this account,
and everyone mourn who lives in it,
and all of it rise like the Nile,
and be tossed about and sink again, like the Nile of Egypt?
On that day, says the Lord GOD,
I will make the sun go down at noon,
and darken the earth in broad daylight.
I will turn your feasts into mourning,
and all your songs into lamentation;
I will bring sackcloth on all loins,
and baldness on every head;
I will make it like the mourning for an only son,
and the end of it like a bitter day.
The time is surely coming, says the Lord GOD,
when I will send a famine on the land;
not a famine of bread, or a thirst for water,
but of hearing the words of the LORD.
They shall wander from sea to sea,
and from north to east;
they shall run to and fro, seeking the word of the LORD,
but they shall not find it.

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Psalm 52 (Please read responsively by whole verse. The lector will begin.)

- 1 You tyrant, why do you boast of wickedness against the godly all day long?
- 2 You plot ruin;
your tongue is like a sharpened razor,
O worker of deception.
- 3 You love evil more than good and lying more than speaking the truth.

- 4 You love all words that hurt,
 O you deceitful tongue.
- 5 Oh, that God would demolish you utterly, topple you, and snatch you from your dwelling,
 and root you out of the land of the living!
- 6 The righteous shall see and tremble, and they shall laugh at him, saying,
- 7 "This is the one who did not take God for a refuge,
 but trusted in great wealth and relied upon wickedness."
- 8 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God;
 I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.
- 9 I will give you thanks for what you have done * and declare the goodness of your Name in the presence of the godly.

The Epistle

A Reading from St. Paul's Letter to the Colossians 1:15-28

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers~ all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

And you who were once estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his fleshly body through death, so as to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him~ provided that you continue securely established and steadfast in the faith, without shifting from the hope promised by the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven. I, Paul, became a servant of this gospel.

I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am completing what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church. I became its servant according to God's commission that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery that has been hidden throughout the ages and generations but has now been revealed to his saints. To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. It is he whom we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present everyone mature in Christ.

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Gradual Hymn 488 Be thou my vision

1. Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart; all else be

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke 10:38-42

Glory to you, Lord Christ

As Jesus and his disciples went on their way, Jesus entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying. But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me." But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her."

The Gospel of the Lord Praise to you, Lord Christ

The Sermon The Rev. Andrew Rutledge

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Friends, let us come before God in prayer saying: Christ, in your mercy, Refresh our hearts.

We remember in our prayers all the leaders of your Church. May they, by their love and witness, inspire your children to greater joy and encouragement.

Christ in your mercy, Refresh our hearts.

We remember in our prayers the leaders of the nations. May they choose ways of life and not paths of death. Deliver the nations of the world from violence and war. Set our feet on the way of peace.

Christ in your mercy, Refresh our hearts.

We remember in our prayers all your creation. May we protect the trees, the waters and the fruits of the earth. Forgive us when our choices cause loss where you intend life. May we ever celebrate the life-giving aspects of your creation. Silence The congregation may add thanksgivings for God's creation.

Christ in your mercy, Refresh our hearts.

We remember in our prayers this congregation. We ask you to bless our ministries. May we encourage each other to delight in you. Let us appeal to each other based on love and always remember our sisters and brothers in prayer.

Christ in your mercy, Refresh our hearts.

We remember in our prayers all those who are in pain. Heal their bodies, their spirits and their souls. Bless all with health, life and prosperity. Silence The congregation may add intercessions.

Christ in your mercy, Refresh our hearts.

We remember in our prayers all who have died. May all who have carried the cross in the way of Christ also be raised with him to new life. Silence The congregation may add intercessions.

Christ in your mercy, Refresh our hearts.

The Celebrant says

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified: hear our prayers which we offer for all your faithful people, that they may serve you in holiness and truth to the glory of your name through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Announcements

The Offertory Martha, Martha

Composer unknown

Deb Watson, vocal and guitar, Joe Klausner, banjo

Martha, Martha, why do you trouble yourself so,
Won't you sit and just let go, so I can hold you?
Martha, Martha, the things you do will make him wait,
I promise you, you won't be late if you'll just trust in me.

Mary's chosen the better part, you see;
here she sits down beside me, trusting not within herself, and merely waiting on my help, staring deep within my eyes,
she saw the love I won't disguise, do you hear?

Christian, Christian, why do you sit and worry so,
Oh, you've got to let it go so He can hold you.
Christian, Christian, all you do to try and make He'll love you more, well, it can wait, just learn to trust in Him.

Jesus has a better way, you see,
He's done it all so that you can go free, no longer trusting in yourself, and merely waiting on His help learn to look into his eyes,
His love for you he will not hide, do you hear?

As the Offering is presented at the altar, the people stand. The Celebrant says,

All things come of thee, O Lord.

People And of thine own have we given thee.

The Holy Eucharist

The Great Thanksgiving

The people remain standing. The Celebrant, whether bishop or priest, faces them and sings or says

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Here a Proper Preface is sung or said on all Sundays, and on other occasions as appointed.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, _____ ho - ly, ho - ly, _____ ho - ly Lord God _____ of hosts _____ Heav-en and earth are _____ filled with your Bless-ed is _____ He who _____ comes in the name _____ of the Lord, _____ of the Lord. _____ Ho - san - na _____

in the high - est. _____ Ho - san - na in _____ the _____ high - est. _____

The people stand or kneel. Then the Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it or lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever.

Amen

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Eat this bread, drink this cup, come to me and nev - er be hun - gry.

5
Eat this bread, drink this cup, trust in me and you will not thirst.

Facing the people, the Celebrant says the following Invitation

These are the gifts of God and we are the people of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated. If you wish to accept the invitation to communion, the ushers will direct you to the altar rail.

COMMUNION IS OPEN TO EVERYONE
All are welcome to receive Holy Communion here.

Please note that the wine we use in communion contains alcohol. If you prefer, you are welcome to receive communion in one kind – that is, bread only. There are also gluten-free wafers available upon request. If you would prefer a blessing in lieu of communion, please indicate by folding your arms across your chest.

The ministers receive the Sacrament in both kinds, and then immediately deliver it to the people, saying:

The Body of Christ, the bread of heaven. [Amen.]

The Blood of Christ, the cup of salvation. [Amen.]

After Communion, the Celebrant says

Let us pray

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
