

Introduction to Judaism

2018-2019 ~ 5779

A Project of the Board of Rabbis and the Jewish Federation of Princeton Mercer Bucks

Are you interested in learning more about Judaism?

Perhaps you have always wanted to learn about your heritage but never had the time.

Perhaps you are thinking of coming back to Judaism after being away from it.

Perhaps you know of someone who is thinking of converting to Judaism but needs a way to get started.

Perhaps someone in your family is Jewish, and you want to understand their religion to support them better.

Our Introduction to Judaism course is designed to meet all these needs and more. In 18 weeks, we will touch on many important aspects of Jewish life: the holidays, history, life cycle, literature, beliefs and practices of Judaism. The classes will be taught by rabbis, cantors and other Jewish professionals from the Mercer-Lower Bucks County area. Everyone is welcome, and the cost is minimal.*
Give yourself the gift of Jewish knowledge.
