

CONSYS 5680 Demolition and Renovation – Lecturer Adrienne Sraver, Senior Project Manager Hill International

What you will learn:

- How to approach unforeseen conditions in renovations
- How to navigate through phasing and utility shutdowns in renovations
- How to plan renovation schedule with required inspections and life safety/occupancy
- How to understand who is responsible for the RFI (unforeseen condition, owner request, error/omission)
- How to analyze and prepare change orders in renovations
- Discussion of restorations and specific jurisdictional approvals required to execute the work
- How to modify construction to support operations of an existing facility
- The unique applications of construction in hospitals
- How to create a site logistic plans for a demolition
- How to approach a full building demolition and mitigate risk from hazards
- How to estimate and schedule a demolition and renovation

Guest Lectures! Site Visits! Current Project Examples!

Projects updated each semester and opportunity to exposure to new demolition and renovation projects throughout Columbus, OH. Exposure to projects from Adena Corporation, Gilbane Building Company, Elford Construction, Marker Construction, and many more!

