

INTRODUCTION TO DIGITAL AGRICULTURE

An introduction to digital agriculture and the data acquisition and management systems; analytical tools; machinery systems; and crop, animal and environmental models utilized in this rapidly evolving field to enhance the profitability and sustainability of agricultural (crop and animal) production systems.

Course Details

*Offered Spring 2021
2 Credit Hours
#35775*

Class Times

*Lecture: T/R 5:20-6:15 p.m.
In Person
Ag Engineering 103*

Prerequisites

Sophomore standing or permission of instructor

More Info...

*Contact Dr. Scott Shearer for more information:
shearer.95@osu.edu*