Reader Ministry Training (for anyone 6th grade or older)

If you are out of high school you must be current on or complete a Safe Environment Workshop before this training. Please contact Cathi Staggs (817) 927-5383 or cstaggs@standrewcc.org to sign-up for the training and to have the required reference letter forms emailed or sent to you. These reference letters must be sent to 3 different people and we can't schedule you to serve as a Reader until we receive all your completed reference letters. So if you are interested, please make contact soon!!)

Training for Beginning Extraordinary Ministers of Communion

(for those 8th grade or older wishing to join this ministry)

Requirements

You must be in Full Communion with the Catholic Church. This means:

- You have been baptized, received First Communion, and been confirmed (if you are old enough)
- If you are married, you were married by a priest or a deacon or received a dispensation from the local Bishop to be married in the church of another faith tradition
- It also implies that you are a practicing Catholic who attends weekend Mass regularly, is registered as a parishioner of Saint Andrew Parish, and is witnessing to your faith with your life choices.

There is important paperwork that MUST be completed AND submitted to take part in this training. If you are out of high school, you must be current on or complete a Safe Environment Workshop before this training. Please contact Cathi Staggs (817) 927-5383 or cstaggs@standrewcc.org to sign-up for the training and to arrange to have the required paperwork emailed or sent to you. We can't schedule you to serve as an Extraordinary Minister of Communion until all paperwork has been received. So if you are interested, please make contact soon!!)
