

Looking for art related environmental activity ideas for kids? The 2019 New York Recycles Poster Contest themes have been posted! The DEC's New York Recycles poster contest is a creative way for students in grades K-12 to celebrate the environment, learn about waste reduction, recycling and composting and show off their creative talents all at the same time. Winners are selected and prizes are awarded for each age group. Don't wait to check out the themes and contest rules here: <http://www.dec.ny.gov/education/32506.html>.

It's almost time for the 2019 NY Recycles calendar! If you would like to receive copies of the calendar, please reply to Kayla Montanye (kayla.montanye@dec.ny.gov) with subject line "NY Recycles calendar order" by Monday, October 29th with the following information:

- The number of copies you would like.
- If you're going to the NYSAR³ conference in Cooperstown or not
 - If you are going to the NYSAR³ conference: We would like to deliver your copies there rather than ship them. We will have them packaged and labeled with your name so they will be ready for you to pick up at DEC's table in the vendor show.
 - If you are not going to the NYSAR³ conference: Please provide your shipping address so that we can ship your calendars to you.
