A special thank you to our musicians who provided live entertainment during the bazaar.

If we accidentally missed any of our volunteers in the above list, please accept our sincere apology. We truly appreciate your help with this event!

Also, a special thank you to Lisa Bennett, EHS staff member, for all her support throughout the entire event and during the planning phase.

The vendors praised our volunteers, particularly the students for being so kind and helpful as they were moving items from their cars to the school – sometimes in the pouring down rain! This event was a success because of all our fantastic, hardworking volunteers!
