

Philadelphia & Mid-Atlantic Region Life Sciences Overview

The Curtis Center | 601 Walnut Street, Philadelphia

April 26, 2023 | 5:30 - 7:30 p.m.

Philadelphia and the Mid-Atlantic region of the U.S. is leading the way in the life sciences, specifically in the areas of research and development and the full clinical development lifecycle for novel cell and gene therapy treatments.

The Mid-Atlantic - Eurasia Business Council invites you to join us to learn more about why Philadelphia/Mid-Atlantic Region is at the center of the life sciences industry. Presented in conjunction with the CPHI NA Expo and Conference, this exclusive gathering offers a behind the scenes tour and panel discussion on navigating the U.S. regulatory process & standards development while enjoying refreshments and thoughtful conversations with industry leaders.

Once a manufacturing facility for the Curtis Publishing Company, The Curtis Center has been transformed into the region's most dynamic life science community, including BioLabs, a global pioneer in flexible, premier biotech lab space and services to support the growth of emerging life science companies.
