

Join us as we commemorate a remarkable milestone in our church's musical heritage—the 30th Anniversary of the Richards, Fowkes & Co. Opus 5 Organ at St. John's Lutheran Church in Stamford, Connecticut.

Event Details

Date: Sunday, November 16, 2025

Time: 5:00 PM

Location: St. John's Lutheran Church, Stamford, CT

Featured Performer

Stephen Rapp, Organist Emeritus, will present a special recital showcasing the magnificent sounds of our beloved organ, demonstrating why this instrument has been the cornerstone of our worship and musical life for three decades.

Special Presentations

We are honored to welcome two distinguished speakers who will share reflections on this significant anniversary:

- Pat Fisher, wife of Chuck Fisher, who was instrumental in leading the organ project, will offer insights into the vision and dedication that brought this remarkable instrument to our church.
- Pastor Emeritus Albrecht will provide reflections on the organ project and his participation in the project.

Admission and Support

Admission is free, and all are welcome to attend this celebration of music and community.

Donations are gratefully accepted to support our ongoing Worship and Music ministry. Contributions may be made by:

- Check payable to St. John's Lutheran Church (please note "Worship and Music" in the memo line)
- Online giving through the church website, designated for "Worship and Music"

Come celebrate three decades of beautiful music that has enriched our worship, inspired our hearts, and brought glory to God. We look forward to sharing this special evening with you!
