May 10, 2022

Members and friends of Prince of Peace Lutheran Church,

After prayerful consideration, I've decided to retire from active parish ministry. This means that my service as your pastor is coming to an end. My last Sunday in worship with you will be Sunday, June 26, 2022, and my official retirement date will be June 30, 2022.

Although our time together has been short, it has been uniquely full. For 3 years we have laughed, cried, celebrated, and grieved together. We have explored scripture together. We have wrestled with what it means to be the church today. And perhaps most significantly we've walked through a pandemic that has changed so much. It will be difficult to say goodbye. And yet, it is time for me to go.

After 39 years as a pastor, not far from 70 years of age, having served five congregations in as many states, it seems the right time for me to end the adventure of serving the church as a called pastor.

You need someone who has the energy and insight to bring you out of this pandemic into a new era for this congregation, to build on what we've started. You need someone who will help you vision and live into the new realities ahead, striving to be faithful in a new season. I don't think I am that person anymore. I am weary. I lack the resolve necessary to continue exploring creative ministry. It is time for me to retire.

The Rev. Steven Wilco, Associate to the Bishop will work with your leadership during this transition time. There will be time for reflection, critical examination, and a hopeful call process.

It is my hope and prayer that we can use these remaining weeks to celebrate our life together. Let's recognize the connections we've had and give thanks to God for bringing us together in this place and time. Let's walk one more time toward the Festival of Pentecost, immersing ourselves in God's grace, and anticipating the Spirit breathing through us with new and exciting possibilities of future faithfulness.

The future belongs to God,

The Rev. Paul Lutz, Pastor

PASTOR LUTZ

On June 26th we will have our farewell and transition service for Pastor. On June 12th, we will recognize Pastor's retirement at the church picnic.

~ Church Council

Dear Prince of Peace Congregation,

Last week, as we learned of Pastor's retirement, the news brought forth mixed emotions and sentiments. We are excited for Pastor to move forward and experience new opportunities in his retirement with family and friends. We are sad because Pastor and Janet have been a tremendous source of light and joy in our congregation. We also may feel a bit uncertain, what is the next phase for Prince of Peace?

First, we would like to thank Pastor Paul and Janet for their journey with Prince of Peace over the past three years. We appreciate the work and service they have provided for us all during this time. They have brought us through an integral transition of uncertainty, change, and hope, and have offered comfort and support to not only our congregation but to Brookfield community members as well. Pastor Paul's dedication to his pastoral mission has helped strengthen the bond with the members of our growing congregation. We wish Pastor Paul and Janet the best of luck in their retirement.

After many changes and uncertainty, in January 2021, Pastor and Council were committed to and focused on exploring and finding our "why?" By conducting small group discussions, our Council and Forward Leadership committee members heard about the needs, desires, and what is important to congregation members at Prince of Peace. Using the words of our congregational members, we have been able to identify the core values of our new church's mission and vision. We are excited to present these statements to you at the upcoming congregational meeting in June.

During the last three years, Prince of Peace has been very busy working on strengthening our ministries. We have welcomed a new Music Director to lead our worship and music ministry. Our faith formation has provided options to our youth to participate in Sunday school and youth group. We have brought back many of our beloved social events and traditions. Many of our social ministries have communicated their support by broadening our community outreach to needs in our own congregation, to local communities, as well as spreading our love to worldwide support. We have welcomed a new Church Treasurer to help lead us on the finance committee. Our property committee has been busy with the sale of Misty Hollow and other daily and more imminent upkeep of the church. We continue to explore more actions of demonstrating our love to serve others.

Over the last three years, Prince of Peace has both continued the work of God we are called to and transitioned to a new vibrant, and caring congregation. Together, we now face a new challenge to secure a new Pastor and continue moving forward in Christian faith and love. Together we can accomplish great things. Together we need to stay motivated and engaged.

To Pastor and Janet - We most lovingly bid you farewell and may your light continue to shine in Delaware along with sunshine on the beach!

To our beloved congregation - thank you for your continued support, love, and Christian faith. God will guide us as we move forward together. Please feel free to reach out to a Council member with any questions or concerns.

In Peace,

Prince of Peace Council

Musings from the Bench

Renaissance to Renaissance!

The year is 1898. The place, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Organ builder Bernard Mudler of the same city is contracted to build a small chapel organ for a local convent. This nine rank instrument, with the unique and rare feature of having a reverse console, would serve the convent just a short while. The instrument was later relocated to the St. Jean Frances de Chantal Catholic Church in Bethesda, Maryland. Unfortunately as the instrument is now in a bigger space, it is altered to accommodate its new home. Here it will serve until the 1970's.

Enter Gerald (Jerry) Miller. Jerry, a physical chemist, engineer, an amateur musician and a devout Lutheran hears of the Mudler's eminent demise and offers to purchase it and relocate it to his home. This will be its third move and moreover its third rebirth. Unfortunately, because of height limitations, some of the instrument's original casework and design including the swell expression and original pedalboard will be left behind. However, the consummate teacher and engineer, Jerry adapts the instrument to its new home and makes it manageable, not only in operation and height, but also 'moveable' at the same time. Here it will provide many years of playable operation.

Cut to the late 90's. Jerry and his family move. As time has marched forward, he begins to reinstall the Mudler in his new home (now the 4th move), but alas, time slips away and it never gets completed. Now over one hundred years old and altered more than once from its original design, Jerry and his wife have come to the point in their lives where less is more and as much as the Mudler has given great joy over the years, it is now time to depart ways. It is here where we pick up the story ... Easter - April 17, 2022.

Now in parts, stacked on tables and against the walls of the music room, the Mudler Organ begins its 5th renaissance, starting with reconnecting all the mechanics. It will now become part of our history. While it will be an ongoing project for the youth music ministry program, it represents more than that. It is an opportunity for all ... youth, young at heart, members here or at large, to learn how this instrument is both played and engineered. It is a project for woodworkers, STEM collaborators and musicians alike. Overtime, as it will take time to do it right, it is our goal and intention to see its altered beauty restored, repurposed and ultimately used as an instrument to serve God and his church.

But as we've followed its path from convent to church, church to home, and home to church once again, what exactly is a 'tracker' organ and how does it differ from the instrument we use on Sunday mornings you might ask? More on this next time!

Our vision...

"Prince of Peace is a loving and caring family of Christians. We gather to hear the Christian story in word and song and to experience that story through the sacraments. The members of our family are involved in a mission of Christian unity. Through worship and Christian fellowship we are empowered to commit our talents in a way that makes a difference in our lives and the lives of those we touch."
