Bylaws and continuing resolutions

Bylaws and continuing resolutions are usually incorporated into the text of the constitution in the chapter that addresses the content of the bylaw or continuing resolution. For example, bylaws concerning the congregation meetings would be in Chapter 10. See the introduction to the Model Constitution for Congregations of the ELCA (attached). If Prince of Peace wants to continue to have bylaws and continuing resolutions in separate sections at the end of the document, that will not prevent the Synod Council from approving it.

BYLAWS TO THE CONSTITUTION
OF
PRINCE OF PEACE LUTHERAN CHURCH
BROOKFIELD, CONNECTICUT

- 1) A mission statement to guide this congregation in its ministry shall be adopted and regularly printed in the publications of the church.

“Prince of Peace is a loving and caring family of Christians. We gather to hear the Christian story in word and song and to experience that story through the sacraments. The members of our family are involved in a mission of Christian unity. Through worship and Christian fellowship we are empowered to commit our talents in a way that makes a difference in our lives and the lives of those we touch.”

Through worship and Christian fellowship we are empowered to commit our talents in a way that makes a difference in our lives and the lives of those we touch.”~~

- 2) The annual meeting of the congregation shall be held on a Sunday in April or May, as to be set by the Congregation Council. The purpose of this meeting shall be to conduct elections for the Congregation Council, receive comprehensive audited reports on the congregation’s life and ministry, adopt a budget for Prince of Peace Nursery School for the ensuing school year and conduct such other business as may be necessary. Persons elected to serve on the Congregation Council shall be installed at the next regular Sunday service after said meeting or as soon thereafter as convenient.
- 3) There shall be ~~an annual~~ meeting of the congregation held each year on a Sunday in January, as set by the Congregation Council. The purpose of this meeting shall be to adopt operating budgets for Prince of Peace Lutheran Church and Prince of Peace Cemetery for the ensuing calendar year. At this meeting, the Congregation Council shall report on the status of pledges which have been received through the Stewardship program, to support congregational ministries of the ensuing year.

***Bylaw 4 may cause confusion as to members' status. "Active" and "Inactive" are not terms used in the constitution. The potential for confusion is that "inactive" members who have made a contribution of record and communed during the preceding calendar year would still be considered voting members according to the constitution, even if they have not communed

or made a contribution of record for twelve consecutive months and were declared "inactive." (For example, according to the constitution, a person who last communed and made a contribution of record in January 2021 would still be a voting member according to the constitution, but that person would be designated as "inactive" according to bylaw 4. One way to avoid confusion is to eliminate the language of "active" and "inactive" and simplify the bylaw to read as follows: "When a member of Prince of Peace has not communed or has not made a contribution of record in the current or preceding calendar year, that member will be contacted to notify them that they no longer meet the requirements to be a voting member. One year after this contact, if the member has still not met the requirements to be a voting member, that member will be contacted again to notify them that they will be removed from the congregation's rolls. Names for removal will be received and approved annually by the Congregation Council."

Technically, the bylaw does not conflict with the constitution, so if the congregation wants to keep it as it is, that will not prevent the constitution from being approved by the Synod Council. Since this provision is likely to be used fairly rarely, it probably does not matter much. I did, however, want to make you aware of the potential for confusion. ***

4) Definition of membership at Prince of Peace will be as such:

- 1) Active members are those who worship and /or have a contribution of record during a one-year period.
- 2) Members are designated as inactive after one year absence from worship and/or record of financial contribution. Such person(s) shall be notified as to their inactive status.
- 3) After two years of inactive status such person(s) will be contacted as to their imminent removal from the church rolls. Names for removal will be received and approved annually by the Congregation Council.
