

Many patients do not take their medications because they cannot afford them, while others skip medication doses or delay filling a prescription in order to save money. This handout provides resources to assist patients with prescription access and cost savings.

TECHNIQUES TO DEAL WITH PATIENT MEDICATION FINANCIAL CHALLENGES

- Cash price or coupon price may be less expensive than using commercial insurance or Medicare
- Options at certain pharmacies, such as $4 and $10 medication lists (Walmart, Amazon, Cost Plus)
- There are many different mobile apps and websites for discounts. A few of the most common are listed here, however please note this list is not all inclusive:
 - BlinkRx
 - Care Card
 - GoodRx
 - NeedyMeds
 - RxSaver
 - SingleCare
 - Valpak Rx
 - WellRx

Prescription Advantage (www.prescriptionadvantagema.org)

- MA state-sponsored prescriptions drug assistance program for seniors and people with disabilities who meet income and employment guidelines
- Members assigned to membership category (see handout)
 - May be available for individuals not eligible for Medicare
 - Not just for low income
- Medicare is the primary drug insurance and Prescription Advantage is a secondary payor
- Depending on membership category, may have an enrollment fee of up to $200 (ie for higher income)
 - Best to enroll early in year to capture all out-of-pocket spending

Note: Have Prescription Advantage card on file at pharmacy so total costs will be captured

GoodRx (www.goodrx.com)

- Patients with insurance: May be a suitable option for medications not covered by insurance
- Discount coupons cannot be used in combination with insurance to lower the co-pay amount
- Patients without insurance: May be a suitable option if beats the cash price for medications
- Flexible Savings Accounts/Health Savings Accounts may be used to purchase prescriptions
- Good for use in place of high co-pays / deductible plans, however, will not count towards deductible

How To Use

Compare Prices
GoodRx collects prices and discounts from over 70,000 US pharmacies

Print Free Coupons
Can send coupons to your phone via email or text message

Save up to 80%
Show the coupon to the pharmacy for massive savings on your medications

Patients with Medicare: GoodRx may be a suitable option for patients in the donut hole, however it may lengthen time in donut hole as it would not contribute to donut hole spending.
