Celebrating Black History Month

Upcoming Events

Healthcare Disparities in the Black Community

Wednesday, February 23, noon-1 p.m.

Guest Speaker: Dr. Michael Payne, Harvard University assistant professor of medicine and practicing gastroenterologist. Check your calendar for Zoom information or click here.

Black and African American Social Networking

Monday, February 28, 4:15-5 p.m.

Wellforce's Center for DEI is hosting a social networking event with the goal of bringing together for the first time all our Black and African American colleagues. We also invite all our colleagues to join us as we celebrate their history and heritage and their contributions to our nation. The event will be moderated by Nicole S. Huff, DHA, MBA, CHC, CHSP, Wellforce's VP, Chief Compliance and Internal Audit Officer. Save the Zoom information here.
