The Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses program gives you the time and resources you need to develop a customized growth plan for your business.

Education for Business Growth: The curriculum focuses on skills you can apply immediately, including:

- Identify and evaluate business opportunities
- Understand and manage the competitive business environment
- Analyze financial statements
- Learn about access to financial capital
- Be a more effective leader
- Become a more skilled negotiator

A Network of Support: Through the program you will get opportunities to learn from other like-minded business owners, receive expert advice from business professionals and get one-on-one business counseling.

WHO SHOULD APPLY

The program is designed for small business owners with limited resources who have a business poised for growth. You must demonstrate a commitment to growing your business and creating jobs in your community, and generally meet these criteria:

- Owner or co-owner of a business
- Business in operation for at least two years
- Business revenues of at least $100,000 in the most recent fiscal year
- Minimum of two employees, including the owner

EDUCATION PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

This unique model of the program is delivered through a blend of online and in-person sessions. To get the maximum benefit from the program you will be required to:

- Attend three in-person, multi-day sessions which will be conveniently located in New Hampshire
- Complete easily accessible online learning sessions
- Participate in out-of-class activities, including completing assignments, attending networking events and business support clinics (approx. 6 – 8 hours per week)
- Take what you learn through the program and develop a tailored plan for growth prior to graduation
