

BUSINESS & INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION
New Hampshire's Statewide
Chamber of Commerce

SMALL BUSINESS DAY

presented by Bangor Savings Bank

February 12, 2021 8:00 AM – 12:00 PM

This online webinar will provide you, the small business owner, with critical information needed to thrive in the COVID-19 landscape. Small Business Day panels, featuring experts in their field, will focus on financing options; the latest COVID-19 stimulus program; tax and accounting pitfalls and opportunities; and legislative issues affecting employers.

Register here for Small Business Day.

Preliminary Agenda

8:00 am: Legislative Leadership Panel

A special panel featuring legislative leaders who will identify top small business issues they'll be addressing during the 2021 legislative session. Panelists: Senate President Chuck Morse, Speaker of the House Sherman Packard, Senate Democratic Leader Donna Soucy, and House Democratic Leader Renny Cushing.

9:00 am: Financing Options for Small Business

Learn about traditional and alternative (non-traditional) options for financing your small business from a panel of experts. Panelists: Amy Bassett, district director, NH Small Business Administration; Julie Glosner, Merrimack Valley regional director, NH SBDC; John Hamilton, acting president of economic opportunity, NH Community Loan Fund/Vested for Growth; and Mary Mattson, senior vice president, commercial banking team lead Manchester/Concord, Bangor Savings Bank. Moderated by Michael O'Reilly, senior vice president and commercial team lead, Bangor Savings Bank in NH.

10:00 am: The Bottom Line: Tax Implications of COVID-19 Stimulus Acts

This will be an interactive presentation allowing you to get answers to your specific issues from three of New Hampshire's top CPAs. Topics to be discussed will include PPP loan forgiveness, deductibility of expenses, payroll tax credits, and more. Panelists: Kevin Kennedy, CPA, CFE, Maloney & Kennedy; Marie McKay, CPA and principal, Bigelow & Company; Leslie Walker, CPA and director, Mason + Rich; and Steve Lawlor, principal, Nathan Wechsler.

11:00 am: Liability and other COVID-19 Concerns for Small Businesses

This panel will explore pressing issues the pandemic has raised for small businesses like legal liability, and changes to paid family leave and paid sick time in the recently passed federal COVID-19 stimulus legislation. Panelists: Patrick Closson, director and chair of Corporate Department and Healthcare Group, McLane Middleton; Steven Dutton, director, Litigation Department, McLane Middleton; and Jennifer Parent, director and chair of the Litigation Department, McLane Middleton.

REGISTER TODAY!

