The Elizabeth Avenue Partnership (EAP) is a 501c3 non-profit organization, designated by the City of Elizabeth to manage the Elizabeth Avenue Special Improvement District (SID). Since 1999, the EAP's mission has been to revitalize, enhance and improve all aspects of the Elizabeth Avenue shopping district.

The EAP's Board of Directors and full time staff continue to carry out district wide improvement initiatives, while continuously working to raise funds for the organization through various grants and sponsorship incentives.

The EAP is a community oriented organization that not only helps to support the local business community but it's residents as well. The EAP sponsors many cultural events throughout the year with the support of various business and corporate partners benefitting both children and families.

With your support, the EAP hopes to continue its mission and commitment to maintain a vibrant and thriving business community for all to enjoy.
