Customized, Proven Approach

Using our proven STREAMline for Success© system, our team takes a methodical approach to getting to know your business and its specific talent needs. This customized screening & selection process ensures that we are sourcing the best-fit candidates available.

Adding Value to Our Clients & Candidates

Beyond providing top technical talent to organizations, we deliver added value and professional development opportunities via our TalentStream Leadership Academy (TLA). Through webinars and live training events, our goal is to provide our clients and our candidates with avenues to gather best practices, discuss industry challenges, improve their skills - - - and develop new ones!

Certified Women's Business Enterprise

TalentStream is proud to be a certified WBENC business. WBENC is a non-profit organization dedicated to advancing the success of certified women's business enterprises. Of the approximately 700 corporations with supplier diversity programs, all accept WBENC certification. If your organization has supplier diversity goals, we can help you meet them.
