Indigenous Voices: Supporting healthy ways of living through grief & loss

CONVERSATIONS INTO ACTION

An invitation to move Indigenous-led Knowledges about grief, healing, and culturally safer care into action with Dr. Holly Prince and members of a national Elders and Knowledge Carriers Circle

All sessions are free, online, and designed for dialogue and discussion.

Audience	Focus	Register TODAY
HEALTH & SOCIAL CARE PROVIDERS	From Reflection to Practice Apply critical reflective practice, cultural safety and cultural humility, and demonstrate how health and social care providers can work alongside Indigenous Peoples to address identified needs and amplify Indigenous voices.	Wednesday, Nov. 18, 2026 1:00 pm ET
GOVERNMENT & POLICY LEADERS	From Policy to Action Explore policy and systemic responses to Indigenous grief and trauma, and practical opportunities to embed Indigenous-led approaches into policy, funding, and practice.	Wednesday, Jan. 13, 2027 1:00 pm ET
INDIGENOUS PEOPLES, COMMUNITIES, & ORGANIZATIONS	From Connection to Healing Explore the new Indigenous Voices grief resources and discuss how they can support community-based grief, healing, and education initiatives.	Wednesday, Feb. 10 2027 1:00 pm ET

CANADIAN Virtual Hospice

CANADIAN PARTNERSHIP AGAINST CANCER
PARTENARIAT CANADIEN CONTRE LE CANCER

This project is made possible through funding from the Canadian Partnership Against Cancer